

Letter of Recommendation

Aarhus, December 2nd 2024

To Whom It May Concern,

I am delighted to recommend Jeongsoo Pang for opportunities in computer science and software development. During his internship at Cercare Medical, Jeongsoo made remarkable contributions to our mission of providing state-of-the-art medical device software to hospitals around the world.

As an intern specializing in software development and machine learning, Jeongsoo quickly showcased his exceptional technical skills and innovative mindset. He played a pivotal role in the development of automated series type detection using machine learning, which involved designing and optimizing models, and validating them on real-world medical imaging data.

One of Jeongsoo's standout achievements was the implementation of a novel model for automated series type detection that outperformed existing techniques. He tackled every challenge with creativity and determination, consistently surpassing our expectations.

Beyond his technical abilities, Jeongsoo demonstrated outstanding teamwork and communication skills. Working within an international team, he seamlessly collaborated with colleagues from diverse cultural and professional backgrounds. His proactive attitude, flexibility, and enthusiasm for learning not only strengthened team dynamics but also contributed to fostering the collaborative spirit of our organization.

Jeongsoo also exhibited a strong aptitude for quickly understanding and integrating complex medical software systems—a critical requirement in our highly specialized domain. His meticulous attention to detail and commitment to delivering high-quality results ensured that all tasks were executed to the highest standard.

I am confident that Jeongsoo will thrive in any role he pursues. His technical expertise, dedication, and passion for solving complex problems make him an exceptional candidate for advanced studies or professional roles in computer science and software development.

If you require further details about Jeongsoo's work at Cercare Medical or his qualifications, please don't hesitate to contact me at rt@cercare-medical.com or +45 28578316.

Sincerely,

Rene Thomsen
